DETAILED ACTION

The amendment filed on may 24, 2007 has been acknowledged and entered. In Summery, claim 40 has been amended. Claims 1-27, 29-39, 41-43, 52-55 and 58-59 have been canceled. Claims 28, 40, 44-51 and 56-57 are pending and considered.

Claims 28, 40, 44-51 and 56-57 are allowed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

- 1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claimed invention is an unexpected result in that Applicants found when the neoplastic cells refractory (resistance) to cisplatin are treated with reovirus in combination with drug cisplatin, which is already resistant by the neoplastic cells, the treatment produces more significant anti-tumor activity than use reovirus alone. While the state of art teaches that combination therapy of an oncolytic virus with a chemotherapeutic agent produces a better anti-tumor activity compared to use either of them alone, no prior art teaches or suggests when the neoplastic cell has already lost the sensitivity to the chemotherapeutic agent, one should treat the neoplasm with oncolytic reovirus with said chemotherapeutic agent. The claimed invention is directed to a method for preventing a ras-mediated neoplasm to become drug resistant if the neoplasm comprises a population of ras-mediated neoplastic cells having a resistant to a chemotherapeutic agent.
